

Members,

I am pleased to announce the addition of another feature to each of the Sites. I have added a link on each site page that will allow the download of the Site Photos. The file that is downloaded will be a Zip file containing all of the site photos which are .jpg files.

To download the Photos first click on the link, choose the save option; save the file on your computer, and then follow the directions in the attached document.

Happy Rock Hunting

Rock Dog