

I have just completed the testing of the new rock hounding site "Rye Creek".

This collecting area is located just south of Payson, AZ and like most of the sites around Payson the material is plentiful. The material found is a red jasper with streaks and swirls of black. Any vehicle can make this trip.

Happy Rock Hunting

Rock Dog