

Great news, each of the 46 trips described on the website now have GPS Waypoints in the GPS Exchange Format. Each set of waypoints contain at least four waypoints for each mile of the route. I hope that this will make it easier for you to find your way to the collecting areas.

This format often improves the ease of importing the waypoints into your favorite GPS device, smart phone app, or other GPS compatible system.