

Dear Members,

I have recently heard several rumors regarding the Do Bell Ranch. These include that the ranch was sold to Jim Gray in Holbrook, that it had been closed to collecting, etc.

I visited the Ranch last week and spoke with the owners and I am happy to report that the Ranch is open for business. The one thing that has changed is the price per 5-gallon bucket, it has increased from $28 to $40. I think that for the quality of the wood that this is still a bargain. Hint, the wood in the bucket can be stacked as high as you can get it, not just to the top of the bucket!!

The other thing that has changed are the phone numbers: Rhonda 928-245-9010, 928-524-2628, or 928-241-0260.

I have updated the website with the new info and have included a photo of the sign with the current telephone numbers. Note the other sign in the background with the arrow. This points the way to the newly discovered 35-foot tree. I have also attached a photo of this monster.

New phone numbers and directions to the 35-foot tree.

35-foot tree

Happy Rock Hunting

Rock Dog

www.ArizonaRockHound.com

Honorary Life Member Mineralogical Society of Arizona

Member Apache Junction Rock & Gem Club

Member White Mountain Gem & Mineral Club