

Dear Members,

I have just completed the addition of another great off-road trip (possible rock trip) - the Silver Creek Chocolate Falls. The old Snowflake-Woodruff Road that is one way to reach this site is known for smaller pieces of Rainbow Petrified Wood. Good material has been found along both sides of this road.

The site photos contain a movie of the Falls Flowing.

Happy Rock Hunting,

Rock Dog

www.ArizonaRockHound.com

Honorary Life Member Mineralogical Society of Arizona

Member Apache Junction Rock & Gem Club

Member White Mountain Gem & Mineral Club