

A summary of the website features

DETAILED TRIP/ SITE INFORMATION:

- A brief description of the rock hunting Trip.
- Detailed directions for the highway portion of the Trip.
- Links to nearby area attractions or points of interest.
- Printable Overview Topographic Map of the off-road portion of the trip.
- Printable Detail Topographic Maps with pop-up trip photos taken at the shown location. Includes 2 to 6 photos on each map, depending on the length and type of trip.
- GPS waypoints for the off-road portion of the trip provided in GPX format file. GPX, or GPS Exchange Format, is an XML schema designed as a common GPS data format for software applications. It can be used to describe waypoints, tracks, and routes. The format is open and can be used without the need to pay license fees. These files that can be downloaded and imported into your mapping software or GPS device. Most GPS devices have PC software that will allow you to import trip routes from a GPX file. You can also print these coordinates and follow them using the detail topographic maps. Providing a guide for the off-road portion of the Trip.
- Photos of raw materials that can be found at the site.
- Trip photos that include beautiful panoramic destination shots.
- Trip Difficulty rating scale.
- Trip Location (area of the state).

A summary of the website features

- Trip Destination GPS coordinates.
- Links to other rock hounding trips in the region.